DEDICATION

WILBERT P. CINGOLANI
PRINCIPAL

FOR THE MANY YEARS OF DEVOTED SERVICE TO PLYMOUTH-CARVER, THE CLASS OF NINETEEN HUNDRED AND EIGHTY DEDICATES THIS YEARBOOK TO MR. WILBERT P. CINGOLANI.

MR. CINGOLANI HAS NOT ONLY BEEN OUR PRINCIPAL, BUT HE HAS ALSO BEEN A GREAT FRIEND TO THE STUDENTS OF THE HIGH SCHOOL. HE HAS BEEN ESPECIALLY HELPFUL TO THE YEARBOOK STAFF, GIVING GOOD ADVICE AND AID WHENEVER IT WAS NEEDED.

ONCE AGAIN, THANK YOU MR. CINGOLANI FOR BEING THERE WHEN WE NEED YOU.

IN MEMORIAM

KATRINA JAYNE KOROBLIS 1962-1977

Our hearts still ache
With sadness,
Our eyes shed many a tear.
God alone knows how We miss you,
As it dawns another year.
They say that time
Heals all sorrow,
And helps us to forget,
But time so far
Has only proved
How much we miss you yet.

— Old Buddies

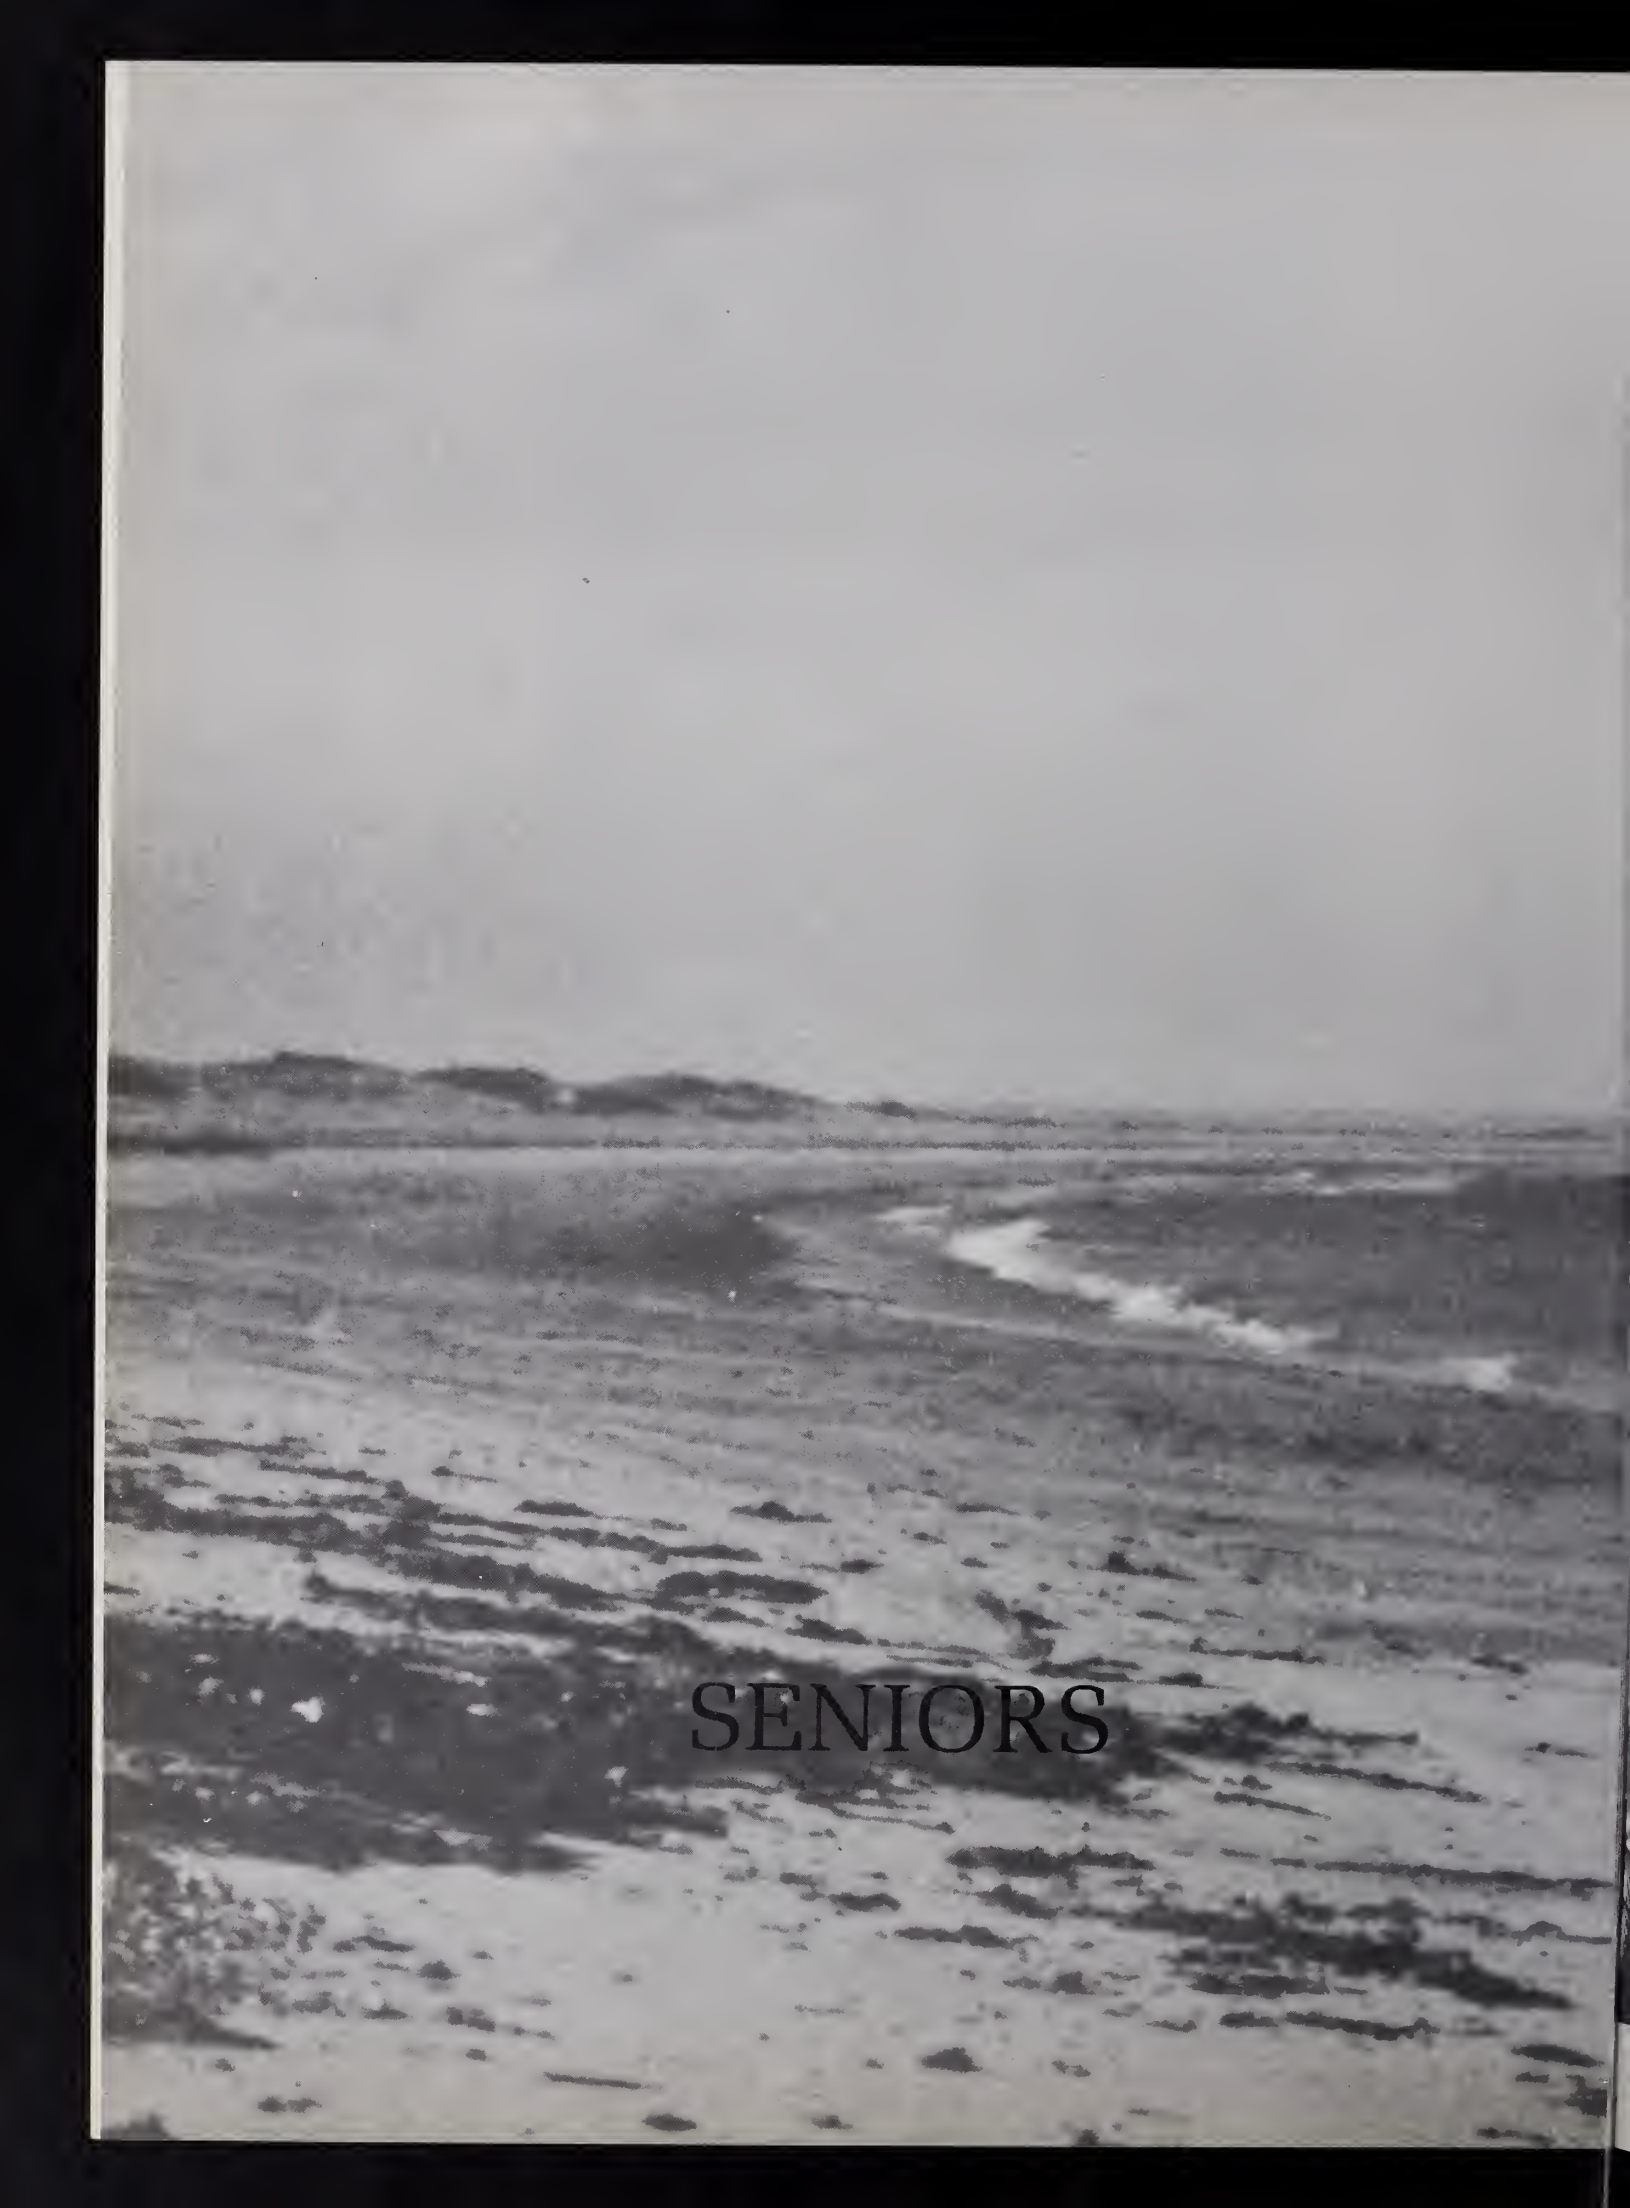

IN MEMORIAM

KAREN MISSY ALLEN

As life comes, life will depart.
It may be no one, it may be someone close to heart.
We have nothing we can say or do.
If we did, she'd still be here with you.
We pray, we listen, nothing to hear.
All we can do is shed another tear.
We all loved her, we loved her true
But now her life is gone from me, from you.
I want her back, do you hear me Lord?
Her love we lost, we can't afford.
Why these mistakes happen in our lives?
No one knows . . .
Her spirit's in Heaven
It will always glow.

All our love,
Laren, Dan, Wendy,
Talia, and Janette

WE ARE THE WIND

We were locked up
Within a building
Within ourselves
For endless years
While we watched the world outside
Through our windows
In yearning and envy
As it went on growing and living
Without the need of us.

The days rushed by Like wasted summer leaves
Dried up and deadened by autumn
And swept away by the wind
Never to be seen again.
And we longed to be part of that wind
To fly above our mundane lives
And to escape our prison
And to live where we wanted
As we wanted

Suddenly our sentence is over
And we find ourselves together for the last time.
All that we shared together:
All the fears
All the fun
All the pains
All the tears
Will soon only be memories
Of an uncertain time
When all we had were dreams and hopes
And each other

We are together
Clinging closely to one another
In fear of being swept away
Which is what we want
Which is what we fear
For we are free
We are the wind.

All that is now
All that is gone
All that's to come
And everything under the sun is in tune,
But the sun is eclipsed by the moon.

DIANE MARIE BABBIN

In restless dreams I've walked alone
On narrow streets of cobblestone
Neath the halo of a street lamp
I turned my collar to the cold and damp
When my eyes were stabbed by the flash of a neon light that split the night And touched the sounds of silence
And in the naked light I saw,
ten-thousand people Maybe more, people talking, without speaking People hearing without listening
People writing songs that voices never shared No one dared — disturb the sounds of silence.

Take away my inhibitions,
take away my solitude,
fire me up with your resistance,
put me in the mood, storm the walls around this prison leave the inmate free the guard, deal me up another future some brand new deck of cards take the chip off my shoulder smooth out all the lines take me out among the rustling pines till it shines.

LINDA JEAN MAZALEWSKI

Looking out at the road rushing under my wheels Looking back at the years going by like so many summer fields
Everyone I know, everywhere
I go, people need some reason to believe I don't know about anyone but me. I don't know how to tell you just how crazy this life feels. I look around for the friends that I used to turn to to pull me through. Looking into their eyes I see them running too.
I don't know where I'm running now, I'm just running on.

Jackson Browne

Every year is getting shorter.
Never seem to find the time.
Plans that either come or not
Or hold a page of scribbly lines
Hanging on in quiet desperation Is the English way, the time is gone, the song is over, though I'd something more to say.

passage of time. Any fool can do it. Nobody knows how we got to the top of the hill, but since we're on our way down we might as well enjoy the ride. And since we're only here for awhile, might as well show some style, give us a smile.

Leisure
What is this life if, full of care,
we have no time to stand and stare.
No time to see, when woods we pass, where squirrels hide their nuts in grass.
No time to see, in broad daylight, dreams full of stars, like stars at night.
No time to turn at Beauty's glance, and watch her feet, how they can dance.
A poor life this is if, full of care,
we have no time to stand and stare.

LAURIE LYNN TRASK

Oh very young
What will you leave us this time You're only dancing on this earth
For a short while
And though your dreams may toss
And turn you now
They will vanish away
And though you want to last Forever you know you never will
And the goodbye
Make the journey harder still.
— Cat Stevens

JUNIOR PROM

Our Junior Prom was held on June 9th, 1979, at Dunfey's in Hyannis. The dining room was decorated with a lovely mural of a sunset depicting our theme "Dusk to Dawn". Boaz provided a wide variety of music and there was a selection of fine food to choose from. During the grand march, our theme song, "You Look Wonderful Tonight", was played. Chosen as Prom Queen was Joanie Keiran and her court, Patty Berman, Chris Villani, Raeanne Fiedler and Jenny Shurtleff. The class of 1980 will always remember their Junior Prom as a wonderful evening enjoyed by all. Special thanks to Mary, Bobby and Shelley plus the many others who put so much effort into making our prom a memorable time.

SOCCER

Although the Plymouth-Carver Soccer team did not have a winning record this year, the team should be commended for its hard work throughout the season. Despite the loss of several key players to injury, the Blue Eagle squad managed to hold its own under the able leadership of first year coach. Emerson Coleman, and co-captains John Romanelli and Larry Christofori. Senior co-captain Larry Christofori was elected to the OCL All-Star team along with John Rego, a junior, who received an honorable mention.

CROSS COUNTRY

The boys cross country team, for the second consecutive year secured the O.C.L. championship. The boys, in three years have 23 wins and also won the South Shore cross country meet for the first time this fall. Senior Stephen Curran and junior Brian Smith were both named to the All-Star cross country team. Honorable mentions were juniors Bob Schwartz and David Marks. Next season, the team will be losing seniors Stephen Curran and Dave Stearns. With the absence of these two fine runners, the team is still expected to do well in the league.

FIELD HOC- KEY

The 1979 Plymouth-Carver Varsity team compiled a very successful 13-3 record this year, placing second in the O.C.L. The squad was led by tri-captains Karen Reid, Leslie Burgess, and Nancy Pierce. Karen was the leading scorer for P-C as well as O.C.L. P-C was knocked out of the preliminary round of the state tournament losing to Harwich 1-0. Special honors were received by Karen Reid, Nancy Pierce and Tricia Lyons for all-stars. We congratulate Ms. MacDuffee and the team for a fine season.

FOOTBALL

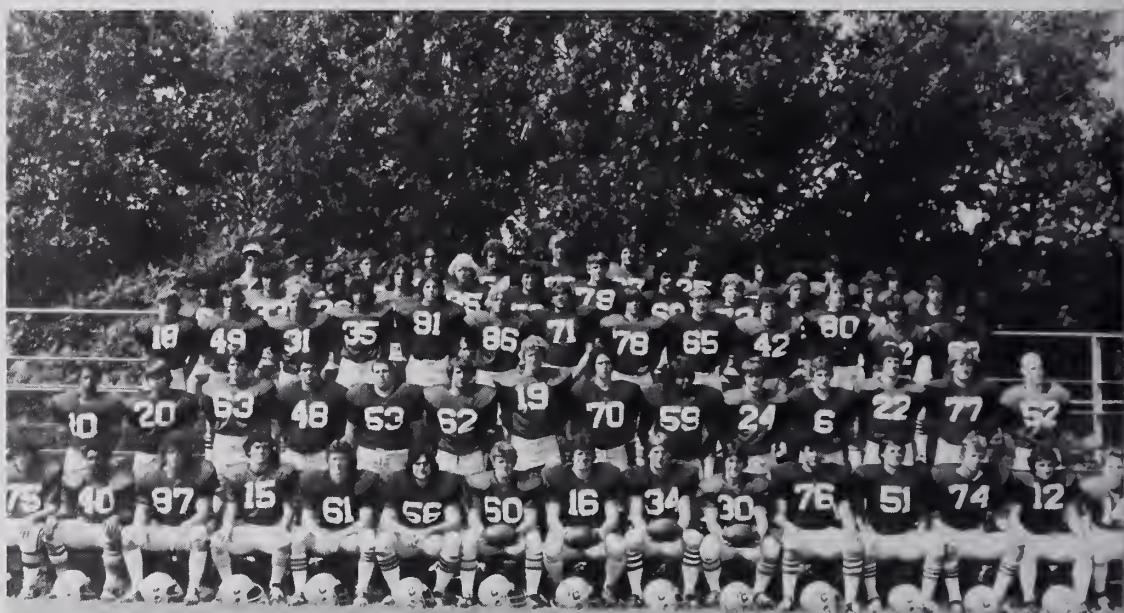

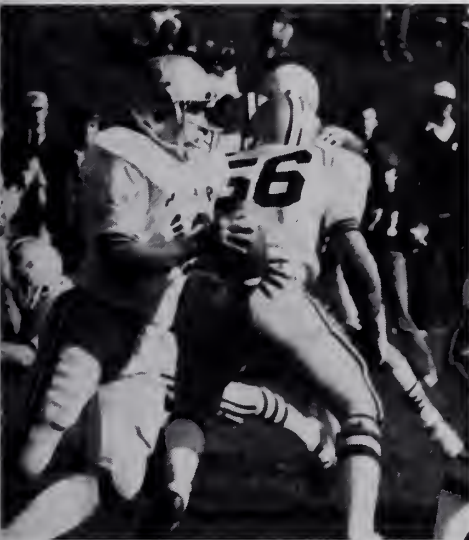

The outstanding teamwork and spirit of the Plymouth-Carver football team proved to be one of its finest qualities this year. Their victory over Silver-Lake on Thanksgiving Day proved that the squad was a much better team than the record indicated. The effectiveness of team captains Dwayne Follette, Tim Walsh, Steve Tavernelli and Chad Rossi was a major factor in the team's play throughout the season. All-star honors went to senior captains Dwayne Follette and Chad Rossi, and junior Brian Pratt. Honorable mentions went to Tavernelli and Moran.

GOLF TEAM

The success of the golf team was definitely a result of teamwork and total participation from each member. The Blue Eagles, under the direction of first-year coach John Siever, tied with its arch-rival Silver Lake for third place in the O.C.L. representing the Blue Eagle team at the O.C.L. match were senior Jeff Stewart, and juniors Darren Stewart and David Minnelli. GIRLS BASKETBALL

The 1980 girls Basketball team, led by captain Karen Reid, deserves a great deal of credit having only 11 members on the squad. The girls pulled together to have a successful season. The team's seniors include: Donna Grassi, Karen Nelson, Laurie Ozelius, Joyce Panora, Karen Reid, Judy Snarsky, and Jill Wrenn. Congratulations go to Laurie Ozelius and Karen Reid for making the All-Star team.

BASKETBALL

The success of the P-C hoop team was a result of determination, teamwork, and the capable leadership of team captain Brian Pratt, a junior, and coach Marty Thorsen. Seniors Wayne Sullivan, Joel Andrews, Bill Hunt, Joey Andrews, Tim Walsh, and newcomer Rod Cardoza also played major roles for the Blue Eagles. The highlight of their season had to be the dramatic come from behind victory over highly ranked Whitman Hanson. Congratulations to the Eagle squad for an outstanding season and a job well done.

GYMNASTICS

The gymnastics season began with four consecutive wins. Although P-C did very well they were not able to bring home victories. All in all the team had a very successful season; closing with 5 wins and 4 losses, receiving the highest score ever in P-C history, 105.9. As the season came to a close the team proudly watched the O.C.L. meet where Beth Vender took third place in the all-around competition, Janet Urquert took 5th on the beam and Maureen Brown took 6th on the floor. This year was the last meet for seniors Mary Harrington, and second year captain Julie Strauch, and first year senior captain Barb Tosi.

WRESTLING

The P.C. Wrestling team enjoyed another fine season under Coach Ward and senior tri-captains Steve Ward, Dave Amoling, and Larry Boucher. Determination was a key factor to the success of the Blue Eagles as witnessed in their dramatic win over non-league Duxbury in the final seconds of the match. The Blue Eagle squad should be commended for its fine work throughout the season.

We, the editors of the 1980 Pilgrim, would like to express our gratitude to the many people who have given their time and effort in the production of the Pilgrim:

Miss Kathy Dietlin, not only our advisor, but a friend that was there whenever we needed her.

Mrs. Donna Evans, who gave up time that she really didn't have, to help us make this project complete.

Arnie Lohmann, representative of Taylor Publishing Co. He has been our source of encouragement from the very beginning.

Studio One of Plymouth, who made it possible for us to meet our many deadlines.

Finally, our yearbook staff who helped us immeasurably during this past year; giving of their time, advice, understanding and enthusiasm to help us make this yearbook a reality.
